Training

10501 NE Highway 99 Suite 35
Vancouver, WA 98686

More than training, Mind Your Manners also teaches management and a whole-dog, whole-family approach to the health and well-being of your dog. Connie Skinner specializes in early puppy socialization and prevention through management and training but she is also the trainer to turn to when dealing with aggression, separation anxiety and any other problems. She focuses on reinforcing desired behavior with positive techniques instead of punishment or pain-based tactics. Connie has been helping to develop sound relationships with families and their dogs in Clark County since 1992.

Handlers of any age, size or strength can apply these dog-friendly, human-friendly methods. In Connie's classes you will learn about canine body language, appropriate play styles and how to work with your dog instead of against your dog. Connie understands the importance of involving the whole family in training a dog, and includes even the youngest children into the process whenever possible. All ages and breeds are always welcome.

Puppy Kindergarten: (pups under 18 wks)
Course focus is on bite inhibition, critical socialization and off-leash playtime. Start teaching basic behaviors: sit, down, stand, come, loose-leash walking, and more. Emphasis on preventing undesirable behavior from starting.

Junior/Canine Good Citizen:
Course is for dogs of all levels, from total beginner, graduates of puppy class, to seasoned obedience competitors. Dogs are assessed and the lesson plan is individualized for each dog/owner according to their needs. Advanced dogs work on proofing and extending behaviors through distractions, heel on a loose leash, focus on specific behaviors such as aggression, fearful behavior, etc. Dogs and handlers also practice the skills required to pass the Canine Good Citizen test.
